December 17, 1929

Sir,

I have the honour to acknowledge receipt of your letter No. 3683 dated December 6, 1929, regarding the whereabouts of Lu Wei Chuang () and his wife Chen Shu Ju (), who are reported to be connected with the Mao Tsung Trading Co., Kobe, Japan, and to inform you that exhaustive enquiries have been made, but no trace can be found of these people in Shanghai. Efforts to locate them are being continued, and any fresh information obtained will be communicated to you in due course.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your Obedient Servant,

Re: Lu Wei Chuang & wife-Chen Shu Ju.

Sir,

Reference to the attached, inquiries so far have failed to locate these persons Lu Wei Chuang (呂渭川) and his wife Chen Shu Ju (陳淑菊) here. J.C.D.I. Nakagawa has made inquiries at the Japanese Consulate but they have no record of the above persons at the Consulate.

With reference to my letter of 27 November 1929, No. 3598, concerning Lu Wei Chuang (呂渭川) and his wife Chen Shu Ju (陳淑如), I have the honour to inform you that I am now in receipt of information from the Netherlands Consulate General at Hongkong that the District Magistrate at Amoy issued passports 880 and 881 to the Chinese woman Tan Sioh Zoo (陳淑如) aged 22 years and to her so called husband Loo Boh Chong (呂慕宗), aged 29 years.

There exists no doubt but that Tan Sioh Zoo is the same as Chen Shu ju, and that Loo Boh Chong is the same as Lu Mao Tsung, who in my letter referred to above I supposed to be the same as Lu Wei Chuang.

They presented their passports to the Netherlands Consulate General at Hongkong, who refused to give them a visa. As the Netherlands Indian Immigration authorities have been warned against these persons, it is not likely that they will enter Netherlands East India, and I would be much obliged to be informed of their whereabouts in case they return to Shanghai.

At the time they gave their address as : Hotel Tonshin (東昇旅館) room 31.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

On about the 10th instant Lu Wei Chuang (呂渭川) and his wife Chen Shu Ju (陳淑如) applied to this Consulate for a visa for the Netherlands East Indies. The man said to be owner of the Mao Tsung Trading Co., Sannomiya-cho 3-chome No. 33, Kobe. The fact that their passports were issued by the Commissioner for Foreign Affairs of Kiangsu and not by the Chinese Consul General at Kobe seemed suspicious to me, so that I asked my colleague in the latter city for particulars. I am informed now that the Mao Tsung Trading Co. was founded in Kobe in March 1928 by a certain Lu Mao Tsung. This man embezzled Yen 70,000.- from various banks and firms and fled to China in July of this year. Perhaps Lu Mao Tsung and Lu Wei Chuang are the same person.

The two applicants for visas were at the time accompanied by a Japanese Ro Shiki Ki (呂式期郎) or in Chinese Lu Suh Chi Lang, who had a passport, issued by the Governor of Hyogo Prefecture (Kobe) in the course of this year, and said to be a nephew of Lu Wei Chuang.

It further appears that Ro Shiki Ki and Lu Mao Tsung are brothers, natives of Formosa and Japanese subjects.

If the Police should know something about the whereabouts of these people at Shanghai I should be glad to be informed.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your obedient servant,
